

February 2018 Free Events at The Village Booksmith

(all Friday events begin at 7:30 p.m.)

Friday, February 2: Quiz Night!

Think you're smarter than a groundhog?

Find out during our cutthroat competition of knowledge, trivial and not. Come as a team of four or sign on as a free agent. Quizmeisters Kelly and Mark Steiner pose the stumpers, and remind you to answer the question, don't question the answer.

Wednesday, February 7: Acoustic Jam

Shake the mid-winter blues with a rousing evening of live entertainment from our musical miscellany. Bring yourself and whatever you play for an evening of collaborative and improvisational music, or just come to listen. 7:00 p.m. – 9:30 p.m. All styles and talent levels are welcome!

Friday, February 9: Wrannock in Concert

Mike, Lisa, and Angus, the darlings three of Leland, make another trip into the big city with their assortment of whistles, guitars, banjos, mandolins, and other fiddly things for an evening of traditional Celtic music and merriment!

Friday, February 16: Toast of the Town!

It's Kim Jong-il's birthday and we'll celebrate the Day of the Shining Star during our Mostly Musical Open Stage! Will your act charm the teeming masses or will ruthless dictator Ron Frye trim your hair in accordance with the socialist lifestyle?

Friday, February 23: Movie Night

It's been a dark couple months, so we'll welcome spring with a bit of Film Noir! Precise title to be determined, but that only heightens the sus-pense!

 now featuring new books, too!
