

Our March events have been postponed due to public health concerns and the shop will close at 7 p.m. on Fridays. The April schedule is tentative at this point and may change as the situation develops.

April 2020 Events at

The Village Booksmith

(all Friday events begin at 7:30 p.m.)

Friday, April 3: Beyond Coneflowers

Learn how to incorporate more species into your prairie and avoid their gradual decline as Bluestem Farm co-owner Scott Weber offers some ecological myth-busting along with the materials and methods for increasing the diversity of your flora and fauna!

Friday, April 10: Toast of the Town

Make it a great Friday and hop on in for the Easter edition of our Mostly Musical Open Stage! Cross our buns, you won't lay an egg with Ron Frye and our passionate audience! All acts welcome!

Friday, April 17: Leonardo w/ Anne Horjus

Illustrator, artist, puppeteer, and librarian extraordinaire Anne Horjus celebrates the release of his new book Leonardo Dreams of His Flying Machine with demonstrations of his techniques, samples of other works, and lots of Dutch idiom and joviality!

Reserve your seat for our
September 15 trip to APT for Love's Labour's Lost!

COMING IN MAY:

8: Toast of the Town!

15: The Thin Places w/ Kevin Koch
