

November 2018 Free Events at The Village Booksmith

(all Friday events begin at 7:30 p.m.)

Friday, Nov. 2: We Are Staying with Jen Rubin

Madison author and storyteller Jen Rubin and a trio of local performers share vignettes from her new book We Are Staying: Eighty Years in the Life of a Family, a Store, and a Neighborhood, which chronicles the rise, struggles, and fall of a small family business and its community.

Friday, November 9: Ritt Deitz in Concert

Kentucky native and roots rocker Ritt Deitz performs an acoustic set of “earthy, ethereal and intelligent” originals from his new album Horses and Smoke (Uvulittle Records), along with son Wilder on keyboards, vocals, and accordion.

Sunday, Nov. 25; 2:00 pm: Side by Side

Maine author Kim Yesis visits to discuss her new memoir Side by Side: Tales from Behind the Canvas, which chronicles her 50-year-old husband’s abrupt exchange of his engineering career for a new start as a fine artist.

Friday, Nov. 30: Mountain Road Celtic Trio

Scott Weber, Angus Mossman, and Malachi Persche bust out all manner of stringed instruments for an exuberant evening of traditional music from Ireland, Scotland, and Cape Breton Island.

👉 Journals, calendars, and cards, oh, my! 👈

COMING IN DECEMBER:

7: The John and Shirley Show!

14: Piano Duets!

21: Night Market!

The Village Booksmith

Downtown Baraboo 📖 On the Square
608-355-1001 www.villagebooksmith.com

*“Success is getting what you want,
but happiness is wanting what you get”*

– W.P.Kinsella, Shoeless Joe