

June 2017 Free Events at

The Village Booksmith

(all Friday events begin at 7:30 p.m.)

Friday, June 2: Happy Birthday, Mr. Architect!

Self-described as "The greatest architect to ever walk the face of the Earth. Ever." Frank Lloyd Wright turns 150 this month. We'll get an entertaining insider's look at the legacy of "God who built upon this Earth" and life today within Taliesin's hallowed walls from School of Architecture master's student Christopher Lock. Games, quizzes, and Guggenheim cake!

Friday, June 9: Second Friday Poetry!

Experimenting with hybrid forms, excerpted text, and shifting voices, C. Kubasta is the author of two chapbooks and teaches writing, literature, and cultural studies at Marian University. She'll explore growing up in rural Wisconsin and share works from the forthcoming Of Covenants. Open stage to follow; share one of your favorite authors or read a masterpiece of your own!

Friday, June 16: Noche de la Perro!

Birthday month continues with a party for Zoey The Wonder Dog, who just turned two! She'll show off her service dog skills and we'll all share some favorite dog stories for a celebration of All Things Canine! Also, get a special sneak peak of this year's ArtJune offerings from David W. Nelson Pottery.

👉 Books Cards Journals Vinyl 👈

WEDNESDAY NIGHT ACOUSTIC JAM!

Join the weekly mélange of musicians for a rollicking range of folk, blues, jazz or wherever the melodic breezes blow!

6:30 to 9:00

The Village Booksmith

Downtown Baraboo 📖 On the Square
608-355-1001 www.villagebooksmith.com